

Thai Wedding Ceremony
THB 75,000++

The Thai ceremony is a wonderfully, spiritual, yet light-hearted affair, with a beautiful balance between ceremonial and familiar warmth. Our resort offers a traditional representation of the wedding ceremony, with the finest attention paid to the minutest details. We present a genuine reverence for the ceremony, and affection for the couple, their families and their guests.

Thai Wedding Day:

Usually the wedding events are held open air in the morning or late afternoon and are approx. of one hour duration, followed by cocktails, and afterwards dinner on the beach afterward.

Thai Wedding Decorations & Set Up Inclusive:

- Magnificently elaborated decorations using stunning floral displays in traditional Thai style.
- Beautiful wedding garland for the happy couple.
- A Wedding Blessing Certificate proclaiming the union of the bride and groom from our Resort.
- A Thai Master of ceremonies leads you for the Thai style ceremony.

Long Drum Procession:

Traditionally in Thailand the wedding starts with the Long Drum procession. This involves a long line of drummers, accompanied by bells and cymbals, moving through the resort to the bride's room. The grooms, friends and relatives join the procession, along with 'maids' in traditional Thai costumes, carrying symbolic gifts. It's rhythmical, colorful and a beautiful event by itself. The bride is then invited to join the parade to the Thai style wedding pavilion.

Thai Wedding Ceremony & Water Ceremony Highlights:

- Buddhist monks chant prayers for the couple, blessing them with health, happiness and prosperity.
- The bride and groom kneel together to be draped with holy string to symbolize their spiritual union.
- Sprinkling of jasmine water.
- A conch for pouring lustral water. One by one the wedding guests pour a conch shell full of holy water over the couple's palms, each guest giving a blessing or congratulations to the couple as they pass.
- Planting of a wedding tree, to symbolize your union.
- Your Thai style wedding will be a day to remember and the management will ensure the style and beauty of the wedding that will be beneficial to the couple.
